

Green Apple Counseling

1500 10th Ave S. Ste 200 Great Falls MT, 59405 Phone: 406-866-0350

POLICY: CHILDREN OF SEPARATED PARENTS

PURPOSE: To provide clients, parents, and providers full disclosure of parenting plans and custody information.

Procedure:

When a divorced/separated parent is enrolling a child to receive treatment at Green Apple Counseling, it will be protocol that the parent provides the most current parenting plan for the child within 7 days of requesting treatment. Upon reading the parenting plan, two (2) things may happen at Green Apple:

1. If the parenting plan indicates that the other parent be involved, then a Green Apple employee will contact the other parent and seek permission to continue treatment here, as well as invite that parent to participate in treatment.
2. If the parenting plan indicates that the parent bringing in the child has permission to seek counseling, without permission of other parent, then treatment will continue here.
 - a. Green Apple will do everything possible, according to law, to protect the child's best interest.
 - b. If one parent objects to therapy, but the other parent insists and has permission, Green Apple will do everything to moderate the difference, but may continue therapy with the child and the supportive parent.

If there is no parenting plan in place, then the other parent will need to be notified and give permission to receive and/or continue therapy at Green Apple Counseling, LLC.

Green Apple Counseling

1500 10th Ave S. Ste 200 Great Falls MT, 59405 Phone: 406-866-0350

POLICY: CHILDREN OF SEPARATED PARENTS

PURPOSE: To provide clients, parents, and providers full disclosure of parenting plans and custody information.

Procedure:

When a divorced/separated parent is enrolling a child to receive treatment at Green Apple Counseling, it will be protocol that the parent provides the most current parenting plan for the child within 7 days of requesting treatment. Upon reading the parenting plan, two (2) things may happen at Green Apple:

1. If the parenting plan indicates that the other parent be involved, then a Green Apple employee will contact the other parent and seek permission to continue treatment here, as well as invite that parent to participate in treatment.
2. If the parenting plan indicates that the parent bringing in the child has permission to seek counseling, without permission of other parent, then treatment will continue here.
 - a. Green Apple will do everything possible, according to law, to protect the child's best interest.
 - b. If one parent objects to therapy, but the other parent insists and has permission, Green Apple will do everything to moderate the difference, but may continue therapy with the child and the supportive parent.

If there is no parenting plan in place, then the other parent will need to be notified and give permission to receive and/or continue therapy at Green Apple Counseling, LLC.

Green Apple Counseling

1500 10th Ave S. Ste 200 Great Falls MT, 59405 Phone: 406-866-0350

POLICY: CHILDREN OF SEPARATED PARENTS

PURPOSE: To provide clients, parents, and providers full disclosure of parenting plans and custody information.

Procedure:

When a divorced/separated parent is enrolling a child to receive treatment at Green Apple Counseling, it will be protocol that the parent provides the most current parenting plan for the child within 7 days of requesting treatment. Upon reading the parenting plan, two (2) things may happen at Green Apple:

1. If the parenting plan indicates that the other parent be involved, then a Green Apple employee will contact the other parent and seek permission to continue treatment here, as well as invite that parent to participate in treatment.
2. If the parenting plan indicates that the parent bringing in the child has permission to seek counseling, without permission of other parent, then treatment will continue here.
 - a. Green Apple will do everything possible, according to law, to protect the child's best interest.
 - b. If one parent objects to therapy, but the other parent insists and has permission, Green Apple will do everything to moderate the difference, but may continue therapy with the child and the supportive parent.

If there is no parenting plan in place, then the other parent will need to be notified and give permission to receive and/or continue therapy at Green Apple Counseling, LLC.

Green Apple Counseling

1500 10th Ave S. Ste 200 Great Falls MT, 59405 Phone: 406-866-0350

POLICY: CHILDREN OF SEPARATED PARENTS

PURPOSE: To provide clients, parents, and providers full disclosure of parenting plans and custody information.

Procedure:

When a divorced/separated parent is enrolling a child to receive treatment at Green Apple Counseling, it will be protocol that the parent provides the most current parenting plan for the child within 7 days of requesting treatment. Upon reading the parenting plan, two (2) things may happen at Green Apple:

1. If the parenting plan indicates that the other parent be involved, then a Green Apple employee will contact the other parent and seek permission to continue treatment here, as well as invite that parent to participate in treatment.
2. If the parenting plan indicates that the parent bringing in the child has permission to seek counseling, without permission of other parent, then treatment will continue here.
 - a. Green Apple will do everything possible, according to law, to protect the child's best interest.
 - b. If one parent objects to therapy, but the other parent insists and has permission, Green Apple will do everything to moderate the difference, but may continue therapy with the child and the supportive parent.

If there is no parenting plan in place, then the other parent will need to be notified and give permission to receive and/or continue therapy at Green Apple Counseling, LLC.

Green Apple Counseling

1500 10th Ave S. Ste 200 Great Falls MT, 59405 Phone: 406-866-0350

POLICY: CHILDREN OF SEPARATED PARENTS

PURPOSE: To provide clients, parents, and providers full disclosure of parenting plans and custody information.

Procedure:

When a divorced/separated parent is enrolling a child to receive treatment at Green Apple Counseling, it will be protocol that the parent provides the most current parenting plan for the child within 7 days of requesting treatment. Upon reading the parenting plan, two (2) things may happen at Green Apple:

1. If the parenting plan indicates that the other parent be involved, then a Green Apple employee will contact the other parent and seek permission to continue treatment here, as well as invite that parent to participate in treatment.
2. If the parenting plan indicates that the parent bringing in the child has permission to seek counseling, without permission of other parent, then treatment will continue here.
 - a. Green Apple will do everything possible, according to law, to protect the child's best interest.
 - b. If one parent objects to therapy, but the other parent insists and has permission, Green Apple will do everything to moderate the difference, but may continue therapy with the child and the supportive parent.

If there is no parenting plan in place, then the other parent will need to be notified and give permission to receive and/or continue therapy at Green Apple Counseling, LLC.

Green Apple Counseling

1500 10th Ave S. Ste 200 Great Falls MT, 59405 Phone: 406-866-0350

POLICY: CHILDREN OF SEPARATED PARENTS

PURPOSE: To provide clients, parents, and providers full disclosure of parenting plans and custody information.

Procedure:

When a divorced/separated parent is enrolling a child to receive treatment at Green Apple Counseling, it will be protocol that the parent provides the most current parenting plan for the child within 7 days of requesting treatment. Upon reading the parenting plan, two (2) things may happen at Green Apple:

1. If the parenting plan indicates that the other parent be involved, then a Green Apple employee will contact the other parent and seek permission to continue treatment here, as well as invite that parent to participate in treatment.
2. If the parenting plan indicates that the parent bringing in the child has permission to seek counseling, without permission of other parent, then treatment will continue here.
 - a. Green Apple will do everything possible, according to law, to protect the child's best interest.
 - b. If one parent objects to therapy, but the other parent insists and has permission, Green Apple will do everything to moderate the difference, but may continue therapy with the child and the supportive parent.

If there is no parenting plan in place, then the other parent will need to be notified and give permission to receive and/or continue therapy at Green Apple Counseling, LLC.

Green Apple Counseling

1500 10th Ave S. Ste 200 Great Falls MT, 59405 Phone: 406-866-0350

POLICY: CHILDREN OF SEPARATED PARENTS

PURPOSE: To provide clients, parents, and providers full disclosure of parenting plans and custody information.

Procedure:

When a divorced/separated parent is enrolling a child to receive treatment at Green Apple Counseling, it will be protocol that the parent provides the most current parenting plan for the child within 7 days of requesting treatment. Upon reading the parenting plan, two (2) things may happen at Green Apple:

1. If the parenting plan indicates that the other parent be involved, then a Green Apple employee will contact the other parent and seek permission to continue treatment here, as well as invite that parent to participate in treatment.
2. If the parenting plan indicates that the parent bringing in the child has permission to seek counseling, without permission of other parent, then treatment will continue here.
 - a. Green Apple will do everything possible, according to law, to protect the child's best interest.
 - b. If one parent objects to therapy, but the other parent insists and has permission, Green Apple will do everything to moderate the difference, but may continue therapy with the child and the supportive parent.

If there is no parenting plan in place, then the other parent will need to be notified and give permission to receive and/or continue therapy at Green Apple Counseling, LLC.

Green Apple Counseling

1500 10th Ave S. Ste 200 Great Falls MT, 59405 Phone: 406-866-0350

POLICY: CHILDREN OF SEPARATED PARENTS

PURPOSE: To provide clients, parents, and providers full disclosure of parenting plans and custody information.

Procedure:

When a divorced/separated parent is enrolling a child to receive treatment at Green Apple Counseling, it will be protocol that the parent provides the most current parenting plan for the child within 7 days of requesting treatment. Upon reading the parenting plan, two (2) things may happen at Green Apple:

1. If the parenting plan indicates that the other parent be involved, then a Green Apple employee will contact the other parent and seek permission to continue treatment here, as well as invite that parent to participate in treatment.
2. If the parenting plan indicates that the parent bringing in the child has permission to seek counseling, without permission of other parent, then treatment will continue here.
 - a. Green Apple will do everything possible, according to law, to protect the child's best interest.
 - b. If one parent objects to therapy, but the other parent insists and has permission, Green Apple will do everything to moderate the difference, but may continue therapy with the child and the supportive parent.

If there is no parenting plan in place, then the other parent will need to be notified and give permission to receive and/or continue therapy at Green Apple Counseling, LLC.

Green Apple Counseling

1500 10th Ave S. Ste 200 Great Falls MT, 59405 Phone: 406-866-0350

POLICY: CHILDREN OF SEPARATED PARENTS

PURPOSE: To provide clients, parents, and providers full disclosure of parenting plans and custody information.

Procedure:

When a divorced/separated parent is enrolling a child to receive treatment at Green Apple Counseling, it will be protocol that the parent provides the most current parenting plan for the child within 7 days of requesting treatment. Upon reading the parenting plan, two (2) things may happen at Green Apple:

1. If the parenting plan indicates that the other parent be involved, then a Green Apple employee will contact the other parent and seek permission to continue treatment here, as well as invite that parent to participate in treatment.
2. If the parenting plan indicates that the parent bringing in the child has permission to seek counseling, without permission of other parent, then treatment will continue here.
 - a. Green Apple will do everything possible, according to law, to protect the child's best interest.
 - b. If one parent objects to therapy, but the other parent insists and has permission, Green Apple will do everything to moderate the difference, but may continue therapy with the child and the supportive parent.

If there is no parenting plan in place, then the other parent will need to be notified and give permission to receive and/or continue therapy at Green Apple Counseling, LLC.

Green Apple Counseling

1500 10th Ave S. Ste 200 Great Falls MT, 59405 Phone: 406-866-0350

POLICY: CHILDREN OF SEPARATED PARENTS

PURPOSE: To provide clients, parents, and providers full disclosure of parenting plans and custody information.

Procedure:

When a divorced/separated parent is enrolling a child to receive treatment at Green Apple Counseling, it will be protocol that the parent provides the most current parenting plan for the child within 7 days of requesting treatment. Upon reading the parenting plan, two (2) things may happen at Green Apple:

1. If the parenting plan indicates that the other parent be involved, then a Green Apple employee will contact the other parent and seek permission to continue treatment here, as well as invite that parent to participate in treatment.
2. If the parenting plan indicates that the parent bringing in the child has permission to seek counseling, without permission of other parent, then treatment will continue here.
 - a. Green Apple will do everything possible, according to law, to protect the child's best interest.
 - b. If one parent objects to therapy, but the other parent insists and has permission, Green Apple will do everything to moderate the difference, but may continue therapy with the child and the supportive parent.

If there is no parenting plan in place, then the other parent will need to be notified and give permission to receive and/or continue therapy at Green Apple Counseling, LLC.

Green Apple Counseling

1500 10th Ave S. Ste 200 Great Falls MT, 59405 Phone: 406-866-0350

POLICY: CHILDREN OF SEPARATED PARENTS

PURPOSE: To provide clients, parents, and providers full disclosure of parenting plans and custody information.

Procedure:

When a divorced/separated parent is enrolling a child to receive treatment at Green Apple Counseling, it will be protocol that the parent provides the most current parenting plan for the child within 7 days of requesting treatment. Upon reading the parenting plan, two (2) things may happen at Green Apple:

1. If the parenting plan indicates that the other parent be involved, then a Green Apple employee will contact the other parent and seek permission to continue treatment here, as well as invite that parent to participate in treatment.
2. If the parenting plan indicates that the parent bringing in the child has permission to seek counseling, without permission of other parent, then treatment will continue here.
 - a. Green Apple will do everything possible, according to law, to protect the child's best interest.
 - b. If one parent objects to therapy, but the other parent insists and has permission, Green Apple will do everything to moderate the difference, but may continue therapy with the child and the supportive parent.

If there is no parenting plan in place, then the other parent will need to be notified and give permission to receive and/or continue therapy at Green Apple Counseling, LLC.

Green Apple Counseling

1500 10th Ave S. Ste 200 Great Falls MT, 59405 Phone: 406-866-0350

POLICY: CHILDREN OF SEPARATED PARENTS

PURPOSE: To provide clients, parents, and providers full disclosure of parenting plans and custody information.

Procedure:

When a divorced/separated parent is enrolling a child to receive treatment at Green Apple Counseling, it will be protocol that the parent provides the most current parenting plan for the child within 7 days of requesting treatment. Upon reading the parenting plan, two (2) things may happen at Green Apple:

1. If the parenting plan indicates that the other parent be involved, then a Green Apple employee will contact the other parent and seek permission to continue treatment here, as well as invite that parent to participate in treatment.
2. If the parenting plan indicates that the parent bringing in the child has permission to seek counseling, without permission of other parent, then treatment will continue here.
 - a. Green Apple will do everything possible, according to law, to protect the child's best interest.
 - b. If one parent objects to therapy, but the other parent insists and has permission, Green Apple will do everything to moderate the difference, but may continue therapy with the child and the supportive parent.

If there is no parenting plan in place, then the other parent will need to be notified and give permission to receive and/or continue therapy at Green Apple Counseling, LLC.